HIGH SCHOOL, CHARLOTTE, NORTH CAROLINA

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY

D E D I C A T I O N

This year's annual is dedicated to one who is a conscientious teacher and a valued friend. Her high ideals and her wise guidance have endeared her to the senior class of 1960. Her keen sense of humor is appreciated by those of us who know her well, but, like her other qualities, it finds expression in quiet, inconspicuous ways. She will be remembered fondly by us as we look back upon our days at Harding.

It is with deep appreciation and respect that we, the seniors, proudly dedicate the twenty-fifth edition of the ACORN to our advisor, MISS CLETA BLACK.

In Memoriam

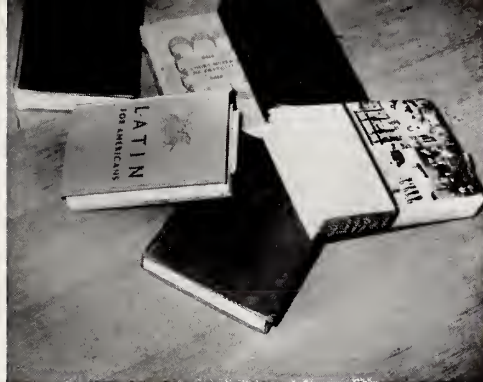

With this page, we honor a great educator and a dear friend, Dr. Harry P. Harding. For twenty-six years, Dr. Harding served as superintendent of the Charlotte City Schools, and then, until his death last summer, as superintendent emeritus. He gave his life to the improvement of education and his faith and support to the youth of Charlotte. His gentle courtliness won the admiration and love of generations of students at Harding.

A truly great man has passed our way. We shall never forget him; for the memories of his work and his magnificent spirit will remain forever at this, the school which bears his name.

FOREWORD

The last picture has been taken, the last ad collected. An annual has returned from press and here it is—the 1960 ACORN, your annual. It is you—your work, your play, your joys, your sorrows—these have made and molded it, formed it into the yearbook now in your hands. It is a reflection of you. For you are Harding. Your presence is seen and felt in the classroom, where you work with others, who, like you, are striving to learn. You are the club; and you are the hero of the athletic section, whether you play the game or cheer from the stands. Here within the annual, Harding's twenty-fifth, is a reflection of one year of your life. It is the hope of the annual staff that, in years to come, when you thumb through the '60 ACORN, you will be reminded of an unforgettable year at our Harding High School.

SENIOR CLASS POEM

I am the Spirit of Harding.
I greet the eighth grader as he enters my door.
I offer him the friendship and fellowship of all the students within my bounds.
I am present in the classroom—
I create an understanding between the teacher and the student;
I encourage the student to make the best of his opportunities to learn.
I attend the school functions—
I am at the dances, the assemblies, the club meetings, and the class productions;
My presence is felt strongly at school elections.
I am the intent of the Hi-Lites; and the ACORN is my product.
I am the life of all sports activities—
The cheers of the students are my voice;
I am the center of the pep rallies, and at the games I incite good sportsmanship and many victories.

I am closer to the Senior than to any of the others—
I have been with him through victories and losses, honors and hardships;
I am with him at Class Night, and at Baccalaureate ceremony;
At his graduation I follow him down the aisle;
My Spirit has become a lasting part of him.
I give him confidence in the future—
He is leaving my corridors, but I will go with him.
I am the Spirit of Harding.

LAST WILL AND

We, the Seniors of Harry P. Harding High School, class of 1960, in the city of Charlotte, county of Mecklenburg, state of North Carolina, do hereby leave our last will and testament to those who will fill our places in the future.

To Mr. Hawkins and Mrs. Mackey, we leave our warm gratitude for their guidance and understanding during our stay at Harding.

To Mrs. Sawyer and Mrs. Stiwalt, we leave our appreciation for their wonderful help during our last years at Harding.

To Miss Black, we leave our deepest thanks for being such a wonderful advisor.

To our faithful teachers, we leave a simple "thank you" for their leadership and encouragement.

To the rising seniors, we leave our many problems in hopes that theirs may be few.

To the entire student body, we leave our greatest gift: our love for Harding High School.

I, Coleman Abernathy, being of weak mind and strong jaws, will my ability to bum chewing gum to French Boyd, in hopes she can get as much as I did.

I, Cecilia Adams, do hereby will my superlative, "Friendliest," to Kathy Sloan and my position as twelfth grade Gridiron Attendant to Mary Sadler.

I, Dot Allen, being past sound mind, leave my seat in Mrs. Rhodes' English class to Monnie Cameron and my worn out brains to Martha Garris.

I, Carolyn Armstrong, do hereby will my majorette uniform to a lucky junior girl, hoping that she will have the same enjoyment as I had in the band.

I, Edward Doy Aycoth, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will the worrying and cramming that I did during semester exams in Latin I and II, College Algebra, Plane Geometry, English (Hinson, Curtis, and Hartness), Trigonometry, French I and II, Chemistry, Solid Geometry, American History, Biology, Physics, and World History to my sister Olivia.

I, Gene Baker, will my front row seat in French class to some rising junior, who does not let the beautiful flowers interfere with his grades.

I, Howard Bass, will my English book to anyone who can understand it.

I, Larry Bazen, will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English 12 class, during the second semester, to anyone who is smart enough to pass the first semester.

I, Neil Beach, do hereby will my ability to go to school for 14 years and two summers to anyone who's that stupid.

I, Dorothy Beard, do hereby will the many good times to be had at Harding to my brother Robert with the hopes that he will enjoy them thoroughly.

I, Buddy Bell, being of sound mind, will my Physics book and College Algebra book to anyone who can understand them as much as I do and my seat in Physics class to anyone who needs the sleep.

I, Lynn Benson, will my superlative, "Best Dancer," to Donnie Almond.

I, Marie Benton, being of sound mind, do hereby will my position as Head Typist for the Hi-Lites to any girl who is willing to type up the stories and still subscribe to the Hi-Lites.

I, Lynda Bigger, will my ability to go to all hockey games and still pass all my subjects in my senior year to my sister Missy.

I, Kay Biggerstaff, will my superlative, "Best Dressed," to Mary Karl Miller.

I, Jo Ann Bingham, being of sound mind, will my love for Greggettes, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Morris to my cousin, Anna Smith.

I, Albert Black, will my position as Advertising Manager of the ACORN to Martha Patterson and my superlative, "Best All Around," to Dean Helms.

I, Spencer Black, will my great ability to play football to my brother, Charles Black.

I, Evelyn Blackwelder, will my seat in Senior Choir to anyone who can stand it for three years.

I, Linda Bowers, do hereby will my prowess in gym to any accident-prone junior.

I, Jerry Boyd, do hereby will the ACORN to Pat Jones, and "Miss Hi Miss" and my superlative, "Most Likely To Succeed," to my sister, French Boyd.

I, Carolyn Brooks, will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's homeroom to my cousin, Kay Suggs, and hope that she will learn to like Mrs. Rhodes as much as I do.

I, Becky Bryant, will my seat in homeroom 107 to anyone who wants it.

I, Steve Burch, will nothing to any rising senior who wishes to achieve it.

I, Prunie (Linda Cansler), being of weak body and feeble mind, leave to Linda Noles nothing, because if you can't take it with you, I'm not going.

I, Perry Carter, leave my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English 12 class to Bobby Roberts.

I, Diane Case, will my title as "Miss Eebuary," and my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to Jerrie Shiver.

I, Carol Cashion, do hereby will my seat in Miss Elliott's homeroom to anyone that wishes it.

I, Raymond Cathcy, do hereby will my superlative, "Cutest" to Neal Sigmon in hopes that the title, will, at least, help him some.

I, Nancy Chides'er, do hereby will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to anyone who can hold it.

I, Richard Christenbury, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave this school to anybody who can stand it for five years.

I, Vickie Christenbury, do hereby will my position as senior high cheerleader for two years to Carole Griffin and my senior superlative, "Most Popular," to Helen Williams.

I, Vivian Christenbury, do hereby will my position as senior high cheerleader for two years to Carol Hunter and my superlative, "Cutest," to Mary Sadler.

I, John Collins, being of sound mind, do hereby will my seat in Miss Hartness's English class to my two younger sisters, Mary and Penny, in hopes they will like her as much as I did.

I, Norman Cooke, being of strong mind and weak will-power, LEAVE.

I, James Cornette, leave my thanks to Miss Watson and a needle and thread in case she ever does "give a rip," she'll be prepared.

I, Donna Culp, will my superlative, "Most Talented," to Jodi Rush.

I, Jerry Daugherty, will my seat in Mr. Brigman's art class to anyone who can fill it.

I, Lorenzo Durham, being of very unstable mind, leave my place at Harding to anyone who wants as good a time as I have had here for the past 6 years. Also, my Dance Committee Chairmanship to anyone who has enough aspirins to take it.

I, Charles Eason, being of sound body and a warped mind, do leave my much-used seat in English to Peggy Cartwright and my well-worn seat in Miss Watson's class to my brother, Wayne.

I, James Edwards, being of sound mind do hereby will my seat in Miss Hartness's third period English class to any unfortunate person.

I, Mary Elliot, will everything that I have, which is nothing, to my younger brother, J. D.

I, Jeanette Faile, leave my ability to get married while a senior and still graduate with all my friends at Harding.

I, Howard Fullerton, will my twenty names and my title "Hiker," to anyone who wants Miss Hartness for English.

I, Ben Gadd, being of sound mind, do hereby will my parking space to any upcoming junior, providing he has a wild Ford coupe.

I, Frank Gay, will my three years in Plane Geometry under Miss Watson, to anyone crazy enough to want it.

I, Gene Ghent, will my seat in Miss Elliott's homeroom to my brother, Wayne, (which poses quite a problem, since he will attend Myers Park), and my ability as basketball manager to Andy Anderson.

I, Shirley Goodman, leave a portion of my love for Harding and respect for the teachers here, in hopes that others may profit here as much as I have.

I, Ben Grier, being of sound mind and weak body, do hereby will my seat in Miss Watson's Plane Geometry class to anyone who is unfortunate enough to get it.

I, Linda Griffis, will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to anyone who will enjoy it as much as I did.

I, Arnold Q. Hager, will my position as Business Manager of the ACORN to Neal Sigmon, in hopes that he won't mess up the books as I did.

I, Edward Hall, do hereby will my superlative, "Friendliest," to Mary Ann Matthews, and my "shot" Bonneville to my brother, Allen.

I, Tony Hancock, being of stout body and average mind, do hereby will my seat in Bible II to my sister, Ann, who will be a sophomore next year.

I, Brita Hardman, will my basketball uniform number "6" to anyone who is willing to sit on the bench.

I, Elinor Harris, leave my position as Sponsor Editor of the ACORN to anyone who can persuade people to bring their money and pictures on time.

I, Brenda Hart, do with unwilling caution, will my superlative, "Most Considerate," to my (little) sister, Ann.

I, Glenda Heavner, will my position as Advertising Manager of the Hi-Lites to Gloria Mullis; and my position as captain of the girls' basketball team to anyone who will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Susan Hodges, being of sound mind, leave my favorite seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to my cousin, Kandy Keen, and then to my other cousin, Johnny Smith.

I, Rose Mary Hood, do will the friendship I received when coming to Harding in the middle of my junior year to all the new students attending Harding next year.

I, Dan Huffstetter, being of sound mind, will my seat in Physics to anyone who enjoys sleeping.

I, Barbara Ann Hughes, will to my sisters, Magdelene and Peggy, the will-power to be engaged for three years and not get married.

I, Margaret Jenkins, will my broken nose, skinned knees, and cold showers to Pam Burns, in hopes that she will enjoy gym as much as I.

I, Catherine Jones, do hereby will my membership in the Greggettes to any girl in first year shorthand who is looking forward to being in Greggettes next year.

I, Jack Kerns, will my ability to get into trouble in fourth period art class, to Joe Lassister, who is already doing a good job.

I, Mike Knight, being of sound body and a very weak mind, leave my ability to drive to Mint Hill twice a day for the past year to anyone who will have it.

I, Tommy Little, will the job of taking pictures for the ACORN three years in a row and managing the football team for two of these three years to anyone who wants it.

I, Judy Long, do hereby will my love for Home Ec. to anyone with the patience to stick with it.

I, Pete Mahaley, will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to Joe Lassiter, if he makes it that far.

I, Joyce Ann Marlowe, do hereby will to any girl that will be in Greggettes next year the job of Vice-President in hopes that she may plan better programs than I did.

I, Jerry Martin, leave my superlative, "Wittiest," to my cousin, Donnie McCorkle, and my "sweet" little self to Charlotte Lawing.

I, Beth Mayhew, will my position as head cheerleader to any four of the remaining cheerleaders and my superlative, "Best All Around," to Brenda Black.

I, Phil McDaniel, will my superlative, "Best Looking," to Ronnie Joyce.

TESTAMENT

I, Susan McIver, will my position as head majorette to Rainey Lee Moose, in hopes that she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Patsy Miller, do hereby leave, and leave my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to any upcoming senior lucky enough to get Mrs. Rhodes.

I, Bill Mitchell, being of sound mind and weak body, do hereby will my position as Business Manager of the Hi-Lites to anyone who can stand being fussed at by the Editor.

I, Miriam Mulligan, will to Jatana Mullis, my love for the library, and to Kay Bowers, the ability to have as much fun at Harding as I have.

I, Jean Nance, do hereby will my nickname, "Dimples," to Diane Sweezy, and my position on the basketball team for three years to Alice Mullis.

I, Bill Neely, being of strong mind and weak aim, do hereby will my leather jacket and my nickname, "Cannonball," to Rex Hyde.

I, Parker Nettles, being of very weak mind and strong body, will my job as window-opener in homeroom 102 to any poor rising eighth grader.

I, Carolyn Norris, do hereby will my attendance record to Linda Noles and my good times in D.E. to Betty Wilson.

I, Donald Osborne, being of undetermined mind and body, leave my superlative, "Best Dressed," to Ronnie Joyce and my ability to cut people to anyone who needs it as much as I did.

I, Dorothy Owens, will my seat in Miss Hartness's English class to anyone who can stand it for a year.

I, Tommy Owens, will my nickname, "Babies," to Ted Steele and Wayne Anderson, and all my good times to anyone who wants a big headache.

I, Patsy Parker, do hereby will my love for Honey's, Oakdale, and T. & C. to Alice Mullis, hoping she will have as much fun at these places as I have.

I, Jackie Parrish, do hereby will my job as Mrs. Shore's secretary to some lucky junior.

I, Judy Peneger, do hereby will my ability to graduate (if I do), to any rising senior who feels she needs it.

I, Peggy Pothress, being of weak mind and very strong body, having nothing to leave, leave nothing.

I, Eddie Proctor, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my superlative, "Best Athlete," to Gary Williams, and my position as Sports Editor of the ACORN, to Duard Hardman.

I, Phyllis Raby, being of sound mind (?) do hereby will all my good times and fond memories at Harding to Jimmy Atkinson.

I, Beverly Robey, do hereby will my front row seat in Miss Hartness's third period English class to any upcoming junior and hope that he will enjoy it as much as I did.

I, Tommy Robinson, will my seat in Plane Geometry to anyone who wants it.

I, Paul Rudisill, will my drawing board and T-square in Mr. O'Dell's seventh period drawing class to my brother, Ronnie.

I, Sheila Sherrill, being of sound body and no mind, do will my position as Faculty Editor of the ACORN to any junior who loves to look at teachers.

I, Martha Simson, being of absent mind and disembodied soul (Joyfully), will my English Literature book to my poor brother, Mike, who has five more years of this madness to go.

I, Joe Smith, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my seat in Mrs. Rhodes's English class to Beth Tarte.

I, Judy Smith, being of sound mind, do hereby will my superlative, "Best Dancer," to Patricia Lynn Kelly, and the ability to drive a "Bug" to school to the remaining W. W.'s in hopes that they can have as much fun as I did.

I, Pat Smith, being of sound mind (?), do hereby will my seat in senior English to any junior who wants it.

I, Eugene Stacy, do hereby leave my seat in the Band and Orchestra to anyone who is willing to work for it.

I, Clayton Swink, do hereby will my parking place to anyone who has a beat-up Ford like mine.

I, Melissa Tallman, will my position as August Calendar Girl to my sister, Gail.

I, Tommy Taylor, will my position of second base on the baseball team to Dean Helms, in hopes that he will someday learn to go to his left.

I, Linda Todd, do hereby will my ability to work in the bookstore and have a study hall at the same time, to anyone who thinks he can do it.

I, Jean Voight, do hereby will my seat in Miss Hartness's English class to anyone who doesn't chew gum.

I, Donald Walker, being of sound mind, leave my place on the football bench to my brother, Greg Walker, who, I hope, will see better than I.

I, Jimmy Wallace, do hereby will my ability to make an "A" in book-keeping while looking out the window to anyone who can do it.

I, Donald Williams, do hereby will everything that I have enjoyed my senior year to Rita Flowe, in hope that she will enjoy it as much as I have.

I, Linda White, will my superlative, "Unsung Heroine," to Judy Nantz, and my position as Assistant Editor of the ACORN to Jodi Rush, in hopes that she will enjoy the long hours of work.

I, Mary Whitson, will nothing, 'cause what's mine is mine and I'm gonna keep it.

I, Steve Woodrow, being of sound body and weak mind, will my seat in Physics class to anyone who likes the exciting adventures of Dr. Harvey E. White.

We, Eddie Proctor and Bill Neely, the wrong losers of Harding, do hereby will our extracurricular activities to any rising senior who is fool enough to take them.

We, Peggy Pothress and Ginger Lindsay, being weak in everything, leave our ability to get into trouble everytime we step out of the door to anyone who can get away with it.

We, the undersigned, being of questionable mentality, (after having eaten here for several years), do hereby bequeath our cafeteria and overscer to "Grendel." Mary Whitson, Lorenzo Durham, Bill Mitchell, Brenda Hart, Raymond Cathey, Linda White, Sheila Sherrill, Albert Black, Carolyn Brooks, Dorothy Beard, Arnold Q. Hager, Elinor Harris, Margaret Jenkins, and Linda Bowers.

We, Donnie Williams and Mike Knight, being of equivalent bodies and irregular minds, do hereby leave our nicknames, "Diego" and "Eurp," to anyone who will live up to them as we have in the past.

We, Judi Long and Linda Burris, being of sound mind, do hereby will our parking place on Sycamore to any rising seniors who are dumb enough to go out in the cold at lunch time.

We, Sheila, Linda, Albert, and Arnold, being of questionable mind and no mathematical brains, do hereby will our ability to talk for 55 minutes without stopping in Mrs. Mackey's College Algebra class to any 4 juniors wishing "5's" in conduct.

We, Parker Nettles, Tommy Hoover, Neil Beach, Carolyn Norris, and Jeanette Brown, do hereby will our ability to pester Miss Chandler with our "parties" in D.E. class to anyone who wants to have a good time.

We, Beth Mayhew, Vivian Christenbury, and Vickie Christenbury, do hereby will our ability to make up a mixture of incredible compounds that has turned Richard Turner into a basketball star to anyone who can keep a secret.

We, Patsy Parker, Marie Benton, Joyce Ann Marlowe, Catherine Jones, being of weak minds and bodies, do hereby will our table in the cafeteria to Alice Mullis, Gail Kiser, Julia Napolitano, and Diane Sweezy, in hopes that they will take better care of it than we have.

We, Patsy Parker and Joyce Ann Marlowe, do hereby will our ability to sit together in Bookkeeping (at the fourth table in the middle aisle) all year and not be separated, to any two girls who are very good friends.

We, Phil McDaniel and Vivian Christenbury, do will our ability to have a good time to Joe Christenbury, if he ever finds a girl!

We, Brenda Hart and Raymond Cathey, do hereby will our ability to "smooch" behind lockers to Diane Ennis and Eugene Scruggs.

We, Jackie Parrish, Dorothy Beard, Linda Bowers, and Gene Baker, do hereby will our good times in homeroom 102 to some lucky eighth graders.

We, Frank Gay and Mike Knight, being of improper body and common mind, will to anyone our ability to bowl 300 everytime we go bowling.

We, Becky Bryant, Sue Skipper, and Judy Peneger, being of weak minds, do hereby will our ability to do nothing to any rising seniors.

We, Jerry Martin and Coleman Abernathy, will our invisible shield that protects us from Mrs. Hampton's cutting looks to anyone who needs it.

We, Jackie Robinson, Kay Biggerstaff, Donna Culp, and Melissa Tallman, will our "beloved" seats in homeroom 212 to any four who are "lucky" enough to get them.

We, Evelyn Blackwelder and Dorothy Owens, do hereby will our seats in Mrs. Smith's shorthand class to anyone who can stand the cold and love Mrs. Smith as much as we do. Also, we will our seats in homeroom 212 to any up-and-coming eighth graders.

We, Butch Miller and Pete Mahaley, will our seats in bookkeeping to Joe Lassiter.

We, Jerry Daugherty and Steve Woodrow, leave our places in English to the two most likely to fill them.

We, Janice Cole, Pat Dabbs, and Diane Kendrick, leave our crowded seats in the cafeteria to any three juniors who can have as many wild times as we did.

We, Janice Cole and Pat Dabbs, leave our places in homeroom 212 to any 2 eighth graders who can cause as much confusion and still get a "2" on conduct.

We, Cecilia Adams, Vivian Christenbury, and Vickie Christenbury, do hereby will our fun and good times in homeroom 107 to anyone who is lucky enough to find a "friend" as lovable and sweet as Richard Turner.

We, Diana Burroughs and "Prunie" Cansler, leave our ability to drive a different car to school every day to anyone who has enough boyfriends.

We, Phil McDaniel, Bill Neely, and Lynn Benson, being of sound mind, do hereby will our parking places in the back parking lot to any juniors with ears as "hot" as ours.

We, Jerry, Linda, Sheila, Brenda, Dorothy, Carolyn, and Margaret, do will our sixth period lunch table to any juniors who love jokes and don't mind being fussed at by the teachers.

We, Susan Hodges and Rose Mary Hood, being of unstable minds will our ability to sit in the library and talk without getting kicked out to all the rising seniors.

We, Judy Smith, Mary Whitson, and Beth Mayhew, being of sound minds, will all of our good times and our "tight spots" to anyone that can handle them.

We, Marie Benton and Jo Ann Bingham, will our homeroom 215 and Miss Black to the upcoming eighth grade.

We, Phyllis Raby and Miriam Mulligan, will to Sylvia Miles and Diane Robinson all we have at Harding—Nothing!

Respectfully submitted,
ALBERT BLACK, Lawyer

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

If it were possible to look into a mirror that would reveal the history of the class of 1960, each reflection would bring the memories of mixed emotions shared by all.

Let us imagine the first reflection—part of our class entering in 1954. They came from Enderly Park and Seversville Elementary Schools. Into Harding's halls were brought bubble gum, pea shooters, rubber bands, and general bedlam. Out of awe and confusion, we managed to elect Tommy Taylor to lead us through our year of orientation.

Looking again into the mirror of history, we see that we were joined in the eighth grade by friends from Bethune, Lakeview, Wesley Heights, and Zeb Vance Schools. With Richard Turner as our leader, we felt important in sending three of our class—Richard Turner, Tommy Taylor, and Ginger Lindsay—to serve as officers in the junior student council. Thirteen of our boys began playing football, while others of our group joined the junior choir, band, and other school activities—we were beginning to play an important role in junior high affairs.

We're leaders of the junior high! This is the reflection revealing our freshman year. Bill Mitchell was elected president. We got our first experience in high school publications when Tommy Taylor and Gene Baker were placed on the ACORN and Hi-Lites staffs. In athletic activities, we saw the junior Rams tie for the city championship; eleven of our boys played on the basketball team; and four placed on the varsity baseball squad. To climax the year, the first ninth grade superlatives were elected.

The fourth image in the mirror is the fall of 1957. Here we are on the threshold of senior high school. Having made Tommy Taylor again our class leader for the first semester, we entered into the field of extracurricular activities. Lynn Benson made the varsity football ranks, and Richard Turner earned a pole position on the basketball team. The Key Club elected seven of our class to its membership. From our gang, Lynn Benson, Jerry Boyd, and Dorothy Owens served on the Hi-Lites staff. With the class under the leadership of Edward Aycoth, the second semester, we felt honored in seeing nineteen of our sophomores tapped into the senior honor society. The highlight of that year was a sophomore trip to Morrow Mountain. And now we were ready to be juniors.

As we return to the mirror, we see that our foremost thought was, "We are almost there!" Our guides during the junior year were Richard Turner and Edward Aycoth. Edward Aycoth and Jerry Boyd worked to help make the student council successful. In the realm of school publications, Edward Aycoth, Jerry Boyd, and Linda White served on the ACORN staff, while Margaret Jenkins and Marie Benton worked with the Hi-Lites. On the gridiron we saw Richard Turner quarterbacking the '58 Rams, while Bethy Mayhew, Vickie Christenbury, and Vivian Christenbury helped lead the cheers from the sidelines. To aid and honor the seniors during graduation, fifteen junior marshals were headed by Albert Black, chief, and Edward Aycoth, assistant chief. The most important event of the year was the junior-senior prom, given around the theme of "Almost Paradisc." Having completed the junior year, we waited eagerly to be seniors.

The brightest senior reflection in the mirror is the Charlotte Observer Sportsmanship Trophy. Presented for the first time in Mecklenburg County, this honor was received for our school by Edward Aycoth, student council president. Albert Black served both terms as president of the class. The other first semester officers were Jerry Boyd, vice-president; Tommy Taylor, secretary; and William Long, treasurer. Installed for the second semester were Tommy Taylor, vice-president; Roy Alexander, secretary; and Raymond Cathey, treasurer. Sportswise, we watched Richard Turner and Gene Baker act as co-captains of the football team. Eddie Proctor was placed on the Shrine Bowl team. A six-four won-lost record was commendable in the difficult AAAA Conference. At the homecoming game, our head cheerleader, Beth Mayhew, was crowned gridiron queen. In other fields of importance, the double honor of Miss Hi Miss and the D.A.R. Award went to Jerry Boyd. We saw Margaret Jenkins and Bill Mitchell made editor and business manager of the Hi-Lites. The ACORN was published through the efforts of Jerry Boyd, editor; Arnold Hager, business manager; and the efficient advisors, Miss Ruth Yelvington and Mr. E. P. Faulkner.

Concluding reflections in this mirror of history are the most important; they represent our final activities together. Class trip—Maroon and Gold Day—we will always keep their memories. The thrill and the seriousness of Class Night are unforgettable: the speeches of Jerry Boyd, valedictorian, and Edward Aycoth, salutatorian; the recognition of Carolyn Brooks as class poet, Arnold Hager as Historian, Martha Simpson as prophet, Albert Black as lawyer, and Dorothy Beard and Raymond Cathey as giftorians—all of these memories are "coins in our hearts' treasury." Baccalaureate, with its quietness and dignity, and at last graduation, our goal of many years—these end the parade of reflections that represent our six years at Harding. We turn away from the mirror to face the actualities of life.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

I am the GREAT PROPHET. I know all, see all, and, for a little cold cash, tell all. The year is 1975. The place is Anywheretheyouplease. As the mist begins to clear and I gaze into my crystal sphere, I am almost blinded by the reflection of the sun on a tall building. A cloud obligingly hides the sun, and I recognize the Capitol building in Washington, D. C.

In the executive suite sits our old buddy, Albert Black. (We all knew he'd make it some day.) He and his press secretary, Coleman Abernathy, are answering questions hurled at them by reporters Carolyn Armstrong, Linda Bigger, Neil Beach, Dorothy Allen, Mike Knight, and Parker Nettles. Just outside the window, sitting on a ledge, are ace reporters Pete Mahaley, Stan Hancock, James Cornette, and Frank Gay. It seems they have been refused admittance because, at a recent interview, they almost trampled Presidential Assistant Bill Mitchell in their mad dash to the telephone.

In the inner office of the executive suite, before the grinding T.V. cameras of Eugene Stacy, Howard Bass, and Tommy Owens, are Beth Mayhew and the Christenbury twins presenting their latest White House cheer to the nation.

Over in the North Wing, Vice-President Richard Turner is presiding over a Senate investigating committee consisting of Senators Larry Bazen, Buddy Bell, Perry Carter, Norman Cooke, Jerry Daugherty, and Franklin Elder. At this moment, the honorable statesmen are questioning Linda Bowers about her most recent book entitled, Why Have A Senate? Upon the advice of her trusted legal advisors, Jane Kelly, Charles Willingham, and Steve Woodrow, she refuses to answer on the grounds that she will be shot on sight by her publisher, Shirley Goodman.

Taking down the proceedings on their atom-powered typewriters are Carolyn Brooks and Marie Benton, aided by JoAnn Bingham, Jackie Parrish, Doris Reese, Pat Miller, and Joyce Ann Marlowe, a corps from the FSW (Fastest Stenographers in the World).

Representatives Steve Burch and Wade Cathey are in Congressional Chaplain Gene Baker's office reprimanding him for using too many geometric references in his sermons. Gene decries the dire lack of culture in Congress, pointing out William Long and Bill Neely as prize examples.

Over in the House, Representative Richard Christenbury has just introduced a bill which would, if passed, require America to change its national language to French. Speaker of the House Donnie Williams tells him that he is crazy; however, Representatives Janice Kennedy, Pat Dabbs, Jerry Coble, and Janice Cole all shout, "Oui!"

Down in the Congressional lounge, I see Cecilia Adams, Evelyn Blackwelder, and Judy Smith (all doing quite well as legal secretaries) chatting with Melissa Tallman, Barbara Hughes, and Catherine Jones, who are in town for a WNH (We Need A Husband) convention.

There seems to be some activity out on the Capitol grounds; however, my crystal ball is beginning to cloud, and I can't quite seem to make out . . . ah, it's clearing now, and I recognize the famous Hollywood producer Lorenzo Durham and his camera crew headed by Tommy Little. They are shooting a movie entitled "My Fair First Lady," starring Judy Garland and that twinsational tap dancing team, Jackie and Tommy Robinson.

Swinging directly east of the Capitol, I see the stately Supreme Court Building and, just beside it, that famous men's haberdashery, Osborne, Estep, Norman, and McDaniel, Inc., in which sales clerks Tracy Currie and Teddy Hendrix are trying to sell genuine payola-gold cuff links to Justices Johnny Lazenby, Dan Huffstetler, Tommy Hoover, Clayton Swink, Ronnie Yandle, Harold Wright, Charles Jordan, and Nat Pergerson.

Directly south of the Capitol in the Library of Congress, poring over Chaucer, are Jean Voight, Jimmy Wallace, and Wayne

Rogers. Howard Fullerton, Beverly Robey, Judy Penegar, and James Edwards are all working on research themes. (It seems that, loyal to Miss Hartness to the end, they still mail in their English assignments every month.)

Who is that I see in the National Gallery of Art? Why, it's Donna Culp, and she's busy painting. I wonder what Congress will do when it finds out the whole east wing of the Gallery has been painted maroon and gold?

Things are really jumping in the Bureau of Printing and Engraving. And no wonder—it's practically run by Harding graduates. Jimmy Zeman, the head engraver, has just designed a spectacularly new dollar bill. On the back of each new bill, instead of a serial number, he prints a cartoon and the weather forecast. Jimmy's assistants, John McCachren and Ben Gadd, are trying to convince Jimmy that it would be impractical to print a different bill for each day of the week.

Down in the money bins, Sheila Sherrill and Linda White are standing and staring at the green stuff. (The caretaker says they've been standing there for three days straight and he can't get them to move.)

At her office in the U. S. Treasury, Margaret Jenkins is preparing to shoot herself because on every bill she's signed so far, she's spelled her name with a "g".

Working out on the White House lawn are Lynn Benson, Ben Grier, Eddie Proctor, Jimmy Caldwell, and Louis Powell. They are members of a top ranking professional football team known as the Republicrats.

Scurrying down Pennsylvania Avenue is Secretary of State Tommy Taylor. He's on his way to an awards luncheon where he is to give recognition to nationally outstanding citizens. Dr. Jerry Boyd is to receive the Nobel Peace Prize for her miraculous cure for the common cold. However, Arnold Hager, head of the math department at MIT, has been asked to accept it for her as she is home in bed with a slight cold . . . Dorothy and Dennis Smith have been named the most happily married couple of the year. Mary Whitson and Brita Hardman are to receive an award for the best joke of the year . . . Roy Alexander is translator of the year for his magnificent interpretation of L'Abbe Constantin . . . Bill Saxon and Elinor Harris have been chosen Diplomats of the Year for their ability to get along with everybody . . . Charles Eason has been named Scientist of the Year for successfully launching a rocket from the moon back to the earth . . . Kay Biggerstaff is Best Dressed Politician. Edward Hall, American ambassador to Russia, is to be given a special award for kicking the Russian premier in the shins at the Summit Conference.

Let us go now to the Pentagon, where we find Eddie Aycoth, Chief of Staff of the Combined American Forces, sitting in his inner, inner office reading "How to Run the Army" by that lady genius of military operations, Susan McIver.

Downstairs in the Pentagon Snack Bar are Glenda Heavner and Cecilia Adams, head administrators of the Pentagon. They are having lunch with Pat Parker, Linda Todd, Phyllis Raby, and Miriam Mulligan, who also help to keep the Pentagon running smoothly.

The picture is getting hazy again, but I can see off in the distance, in Lafayette Park, Raymond and Brenda Cathey out on a picnic with their seven children . . . and sitting atop the Washington Monument waving merrily is a boy I used to know—Jerry Martin.

My crystal ball seems to have darkened entirely now; and I seem to feel one of those ghastly migraine trances coming on—So if you'll just give me my money—

Authentically and Authoritatively
Authorized,
MARTHA SIMPSON, Prophet

Starting like a ball of fire, the 1959-1960 edition of the Harding football team chalked up three consecutive victories before meeting defeat. This string of victories put the team on top of the Western 4-A conference, a lead that was to slip away later in the season.

The opener found West the victim of a powerful and versatile offensive and defensive as they fell 33-0. Following on the heels of this win, the Rams defeated a highly touted Asheville team 13-7 in a thrilling, hard-fought game.

Moving over to Gastonia, the boys found the going rough the first half, but made a thrilling comeback to defeat the Greenies 20-14. After this, thoughts of a championship were not too hard to conceive, but these thoughts were short-lived. The Lexington team came to town and put a damper on the outlook as they sneaked away with a 12-7 victory.

A new win streak was the order of the week against the East Eagles and the team went out and manhandled the Eagles 26-0. Adding to the new streak Kannapolis was pummeled by a score of 43-0 as the Rams clicked on all cylinders.

Trouble was the word for the remainder of the season as Albemarle started the downfall by taking the measure of the Rams in the fog 12-8. The game with Myers Park found the boys keyed up to win Coach Dave Harris's one hundredth prep win at Harding. The Rams, seemingly, out-played the Mustangs, but came out on the short end of a 13-6 score. Coach Harris was not to be denied, however, as the boys got together and forged out a 39-6 win over North.

The last game of the season found Caringer as the new rival for Central. Exhibiting their state championship class, the Wildcats took the measure of a fighting Harding team 20-0.

Greetings to the Seniors:

You have pursued to the end and mastered the requirements that warrant this honor. You have been victorious while others have failed, and you now enter fields of higher service in the world.

As you leave, may you take with you a love that will dispel hatred, pardon to heal injury, faith to surmount doubt and the light of truth to conquer the darkness of error and falsehood. May God grant that you shall be instruments of peace, placing within your hearts a true sense of the brotherhood of all humanity.
